

BY: ROYANNE

OPEN HOUSE

Class of
'95

LAURA ABRAMS

To Maryellen Bigler, I will burgundy paint, just in case you happen to hit some bumps!! I also will the ability to perfect the art of "Linoleum Angels". To my "bestest" friend in the world, I leave the future and all of the happiness and success that it holds for you! Thanks for everything!

To Mar, Doug, Amy, Tony, Megan, and Shannon, I leave our great memories and a huge party! Best of luck in your future, guys!

To Marie and Mel, I will warm gloves and a good snow shovel. Ya never know when you'll need it, eh! Thanks for the great times. Good luck at Thiel!
To Marie and Shannon, I will our Montreal trip, the hockey players, and all of the fun we had!

To Allissa and Thom-as, I am leaving you the back seat of the "really cool bus"! I'll miss ya! Enjoy the rest of your time at SAHS; it will go by fast.

SHANNON ALEXIS

To my little sister, Kendall, I leave you trips to Europe and Hawaii. I wish you the best of luck. I'll miss ya next year. Luv ya! To Kelly H. and Patti B., I wish you both the best of luck. Keep cheering even if it drives you nuts. Thanks for all the great times, especially during basketball. I'll miss ya both and Kelly's sarcastic sayings.

To my best friends, Marie and Mel, I leave tons of European men. Don't ever forget all our great times, especially the talks. I'll miss ya both. Marie, I also leave you a certain game commissioner and Canadian hockey players. To Lori Sander, I leave some snazzy socks and to Sam Longstaff, I leave a pair of Thiel College socks.

To Duggie, the guy without whom I couldn't have made it though, I leave an eggbeater, a meatcleaver, and co-ed naked snow and mud angels. Don't ever forget all our great times, especially the band trips, sleeping on the floor in our room and hiding in the bathroom. I'll miss ya. Luv ya!

SEAN ALTER

I will my brother, Marty Alter, the best of luck in school for the remaining years. I will my mom, Kathy Alter, the best of luck with the kids in the cafeteria. Love Sean.

I will all my friends the ability to go on in life, to keep up the good work, and to achieve their goals.

I will Zach Garthwaite the ability to keep lifting them weights "everyday."
I will Lisa Carlson the ability to have fun in Pittsburg, to get good grades, and to remember, "I won't do it again, and I hope you don't. Love ya." I will Rox the best of luck in Pittsburgh and remember never stop porkin' ! I will Natalia the ability to have fun and good luck for the remaining years of school.

I will Aaron Fitzsimmons the sense not to leave a catfish on the top of his truck over night! I will Budge and James Robert Funk the ability to always remember the Bishop! I will Stoop Dog to remember me when she has a bottle of Mountain Dew.

I will Scrubby the ability to go to Tops and buy me ice cream at Friendly's.

JEREMY ANDERSON

To the Hubber Football Team, I leave the ability to keep a winning tradition, and to the line, I leave all the grace and speed that I had.

To Ryan Yingling, #74, I leave the ability to take over the line next year, and another year with the "Bald Eagle."

To Woodchuck, Woodsmooth, Woodthrush, Woodvarnish, or just Woodruff, I will another great year at quarterback. The team needs you for leadership.

To Sarah, I leave you all my love in the world, and remember, I will wait for you forever. I love you!!!

BRIAN BAKER

I will Heather Tomlin and Ryan Yingling the ability to ski something other than the bunny slope.

I will Brian Freer the ability to stop and ski without falling.

I will Zach and Andy Bush the ability to dunk. Yeah, Right! I will Pat Murphy the ability to someday, with luck, finally get a big buck and maybe catch a fish or two. I will Scrubby the ability to drive like a sane person.

Never forget all the great times we had and never forget me. I'll always love you. Keep your head "shrewd" on straight. Love Bake.

CHERYL BECKMAN

To Kelly, Lisa, and Lisa, I leave all the great times we've shared: Cheering, Exit 23, "Z" night, and our senior year. Thanks for the memories. I love ya! Keep in touch.

To Lisa Lynne, I leave you all our senior laughs and tears. I also leave you someone to drive your car, Irish, Irons, and two good for nothing guys from Olean. Smile!!

To a certain guy, I leave you all our talks. I also leave you my number at college so at 1:30 A.M. you have someone to talk to. I love ya!

To the 1994 varsity football cheering squad, I leave you all the laughs in the sun, rain, sleet, snow, or whatever the weather is. Keep smiling and I'll miss ya!

To Randy and Todd Isadore, I wish you both the best of luck in your remaining years here. I hope I'll be seeing a lot of you both this summer.

To Heather Tomlin, I leave the best of luck with Brian. He's a great guy! Take care of him. Good luck in everything you do. I love ya, and I'll miss ya! Keep in touch.

MARYELLEN BIGLER

To Laura "Wau" Abrams, I leave all of our trips and outings, our 6:30 A.M. talks, our parties, and of course, our FUN!!! Best of all I leave Pittsburgh. See ya there sooner or later. To Heather Caldwell I leave the saxophone.

To Dan-e-elle Burt, I leave all of our little trips and camping excursions, our Florida trip, and all of our other great times. To Shannon Alexis, I leave another trip to Europe. We've gotta go! To Melbert Geiser, I leave all of our long talks and laughs.

To Megan "Weeze" Petruzzi, I leave our 2:30 A.M. Pittsburgh trip, band, and our many fun times, and to you and Shannon happiness always. Thank you for always being there. To Maggie Wells, I leave Doritos and Mountain Dew for Main Street, a seat cushion for those long softball games, and all of our great times.

To Doug Brown, I leave every psycho movie ever made, and of course all of those movies and late nights at Perkins, and the ability to always tell the truth. To Amy Green, I leave an apartment in Pittsburgh and to you and Tony, happiness always.

MARIE BRAUND

To Melanie and Laura, I will a pair of gloves and a shovel for those emergency situations, and all the great times we've had!! I also will Melanie a tube of Blueberry Blistex since you never seem to have any, and always remember to look behind you when backing out of a parking spot!! Also, to Laura, I will the "Wong Westaurant," and all our other Montreal memories!! I love ya, Green and Wa, and I'll miss ya""

To Shannan and Ira (Willifred), I will a trip to Pittsburgh for a Pepsi, a trip to Mardi Gras, and another trip to Montreal! I also will Shannon a gorgeous Canadean hockey player, a Marine, and all the fun we had at track meets and Envirothon! And to Willifred, I will a brooding session and all the fun we've had in French! I love both of you, and I'll miss you!!

To Ryan, I will a wild trip to Alaska and a very successful business!! And to Zach, I will a bag of blueberry suckers, someone else's hair to "fix," and someone else's shirt to play with in Calculus!! I love both of you guys, and I'll miss you! To Tommy and Wis, I will my backseat on the bus and all the fun we had! I love ya, and I'll miss ya!!

To Matt, Brent, Curt, Sam, Erik, and Shannon, and the rest of the boys track team, I will a box of crabs and a Mountain Dew for all the track meets. Don't forget "The Crab Queen"!! I love you guys, and I'll miss you !! And to Sam and Lori, I will the ability to take times as well as I did, a watch that works for the whole meet, and our talks about everyone's "favorite person"!! I'll miss you guys!!

APRIL BROWN

To Josh and Justin Safford, a year's supply of darts to get Sis with when she's walking the streets of Hazel Hurst, and Justin, the ability to find someone to give him a dollar.

To Erica Thomas, the ability to remember all the good times and talks which you, I, and Robin had after a night in Cyclone. Remember the people you talked about, the things we did when together, especially the one that had to do with a certain window, and asking a certain person to do something.

To Carrie and Robin, don't forget our fun times in POD and especially foods class when we were cooking. Keep in mind "add a little extra." To the crew at lunch (Robin, Holly, Bug, Ray, Chris, Bill, and Misty) don't forget all the fun and interesting talks we had that were usually started by Ray. Hey, Holly, do you remember when you were 13? Ray does.

To Erica and Christi, I will all the patience a person can have. Good luck with the babies. To Robin, Erica, and Carrie, I will the ability to keep their food on their trays instead of flying through the cafeteria. To Essence, the ability to find her way back here. You are missed by Robin.

DOUGLAS BROWN

To Shannon Alexis, I leave all the trips, bus rides, nights we stayed together, kitty-kitty, an eggbeater, a meatcleaver, and co-ed naked snowangels. Thanks for the laughs.

To Ryan Caldwell, I will Rograine to cover that growing forehead. To Jonah Raymond I will the A.V. room, sixth period studyhalls, and a chair that won't collapse on your fingers. To Mar, I leave an alibi, psycho movies, Prom'94, Perkins, homework, talks, and tea and cheese.

To Amber McDowell, I leave a ride sixth periods, and somebody's driver's license when you don't get a ride. Have fun next year. To Heidi, Dianna, and Ken, I leave you guys the ability to get along for more than one week at a time.

To Amy, I leave you all the good times we've had, P.C. a barrel to burn magazines in, seventh period studyhalls, the little cement house and tombstone incident, Ninja Turtle underwear, a cha-ch, my half of the brain cell, and your ability to get me in trouble no matter what I say. Thanks for always being there; I'll really miss you.

KAREN BURGESS

To Janelle, remember all the great times we've had together. Always remember the night in Kane behind the Sparkle and meeting my Marine!

Natalie and Tanya, always remember my 17th birthday party with Lisa, and Jack. Don't forget "the barn."

To Joci, you're my little sister, and I will miss you. Good luck through the rest of your years here. Remember they go quickly from here on in. Make sure Steve takes care of you!

To Kari and Nicole, enjoy my seat on the bus! Pick on Jeff as much as possible. Give him a pink spot on his bald spot for me!

DANIELLE BURT

To all my closest friends, Mar, Megan, Shannon, Amy, Tony, Doug, and Laura: I leave our parties, trips, and other great memories. Don't forget the times we've shared. And especially to "Mother" Mar and Megan, thank you for your advice and support. I luv ya, bye-bye!!

To Nicole, Melissa, Jenny, and Jen, I will you a lot of luck next year in the booth, so you will have fun even in cold and rain.

To my brother and sisters, Jen, Ashley, and Jason: I leave you fun, friends, many memories, and the best of luck in your education.

ZACH BUSH

I will everyone a big sloppy kiss and lotsa love, 'n don't forget to brush your teeth and go potty, ya slob.

RYAN CALDWELL

To my fellow runners, Justin and Pat, I leave the memories of the X-C/Track seasons, the X-C Skiing (Westline--HA! HA!!), and the endless miles of road still ahead. Train hard. Run hard. Win BIG!

To my "Mentally Challenged" friend, Crystal, I leave a much needed Driver's Ed. Course, our Prom night, and this summer. We'll have a great time! Start studying. See ya at I.U.P.

To the thirteen-year-old-pain-in-my-butt, I leave my everlasting love. Crack those books, work hard, and get that valedictorian, brother!

To Mrs. Miller (Ms. Burlingame or Jerk to me), I leave a big, fat chocolate glazed, torus with sprinkles--laced with rat poison, of course.

IRA CARLSON

With Glenn and George, I leave all the baseball talent in the world; it'll never be enough.

With Danielle, I leave all the good looks that obviously run in the family.

With Abe, I leave promise and hope that he will someday do something great.

With Ryan and Wade, I leave fond memories of great times that will always be with us.

With Jen, I leave memories of wonderful times together. I thank you for the best times of my life, and for that I leave you my love which I hope will be with you forever.

I'll miss you all!

LISA CARLSON

Sean, thanks for all the memories and the many more to come. Love Ya!

Rox and Jamie, thanks for everything! Never forget all the many great times we had at Dave's and the many more we'll have this summer. Love ya, guys.

Arla, never forget all the great laughs we had in Trig class. Especially the time you found out about the tuna fish. I'll never forget you!

Garett, I will you the ability to do the best in all you do. Make the most of your remaining years at SAHS. I love you!

Brandi, good luck with your running. I'm really proud of you. Keep up the good work!

Tom, you have been such a great friend. Never forget to take the skin boat to you know where! Thanks for all the great times! Including Perkins.

Brent, my favorite sweetie, never forget the time we played Twister, and you played the marble game. Who says you can't dance, Cutie?

Nick, my other little brother, thanks for all the talks and have a great time in Venezuela with all the señoritas.

Lisa, Kelly, and Cheryl, I know you'll never forget our two night trip to Olean when we got lost. Thanks for the memories and keep in touch.

MISTY CAUSER

I wish Holly Fuller and Jennifer W. the best.

I will the underclassmen the ability to stay in school and graduate. Senior year is the best.

I will Miss Schneller the ability to be mean. "I'm scared."

To Mr. Tobias, I will all the olives he needs.

I will Bill Baldwin my love forever.

CHRISTOPHER CLAYCOMB

I will Missy Taylor the ability to find a ride to golf practice next year.

I will Tom and Colleen the ability to stay together for years to come.

I will Chad Mack the ability to stay away from the cops.

CHRISTI COMFORT

To my "Big little Tanya," I leave all our good times and long talks. Remember that I love you!! Oh and don't forget the TOYSOPORYS!

To Kami Myers, I leave a good pair of shoes for hiding things, a pair of crystal candle holders, and a trip to Bradford to pick up pictures. Oh, and by the way, TURN OFF YOUR LIGHTS!

To Sari, I leave all of our great memories of the summer of "89", such as Claude's blue truck, a jar of pickle juice, a clubhouse made of wood, a tarp, two pillows, a place to pee, two cups of hot cocoa, a clock so you know when to hurry up with your contacts, a roof with a moving hand, a frog named "Little MC", a canoe ride with Matt and Gary, a seat at the races, and last a hug and best wishes for being such a good friend! Love

Ya! Remember, it went Me, Lisa, you, and now it goes you, me, Lisa!

To Shelle, I leave you a lot of long talks, a tank of gas for long trips, a sign that says " Galton 10 miles," and someone who isn't afraid to tell the truth! Thanks for all the great times. I'll miss you! I love ya "Shamelle."
Don't forget "Tweety"!

BOB DUNCAN

To Eric E., I will all my long hair.

To N.C.P. I will my artistic and musical talents, and my extremely high intelligence.

To all other students, I will my rebellious spirit and my motto of carpi diem (Live for the day.)

JOSHUA DODGE

I will Spanish all the great times Gorge!!!

I will the football team the streak; don't let it die.

I will Zach Garthwaite my ability to draw so he can get an "A" in art.

I will Matt Gustafson my humor to makes Senor's life a living inferno.

JAMIE DUNN

To Clay and Jeffie, I will the ability to get what you want from Mom and Dad. I love you guys! Stay out of trouble.

To Jill, Shelle, and Natalie,
I will a man for each of you and a lot of fun after midnight.

To Angel, I will confidence, you've got what it takes don't ever let anyone get you down, and take care of my big brother.

To Arla, I will a lot of great times and the hope you gave me. Thanks for everything.

To Seany, I will a bev. and a night in the park with a real light.

To Rox and Lisa, I will a lot of bev. nights together, a blow pop, and a bag of Fritos!

To Rosa, I will the ability to grow. To Missy, a friend who is true.

To Jess, Shannon, and Heather,
I will a 4th runner to break the relay record.

To Steve and Rich, I will a life long friendship and my Mom for whenever you're hungry. Thanks for always being there for me, guys. I Love You!

To Larry, I will a night of driving around and doing nothing, or a night with Rox and I.

SAMUEL EISENHUTH

I will to the gang at the lunch table and in the play to come up with another play next year and have as much fun as we had. Maybe even more lines will be remembered.

To the Bird, I will you the ability to find someone else to worry about you as much as I did and to finally convince someone that "you didn't do it!" Thanks for all the talks and being a great friend.

To Mr. Woodring, I will the ability to find another class that can bring in as many doughnuts and M & M's as we did!

To Brian, I will that ability to have a great senior year (it goes by fast) and to find someone else to be chauffeur

JASON ELEY

To Trent and Eric, I will lots of mustard packages.

To Pat, Justin, and Brian, I will a great season and a trip to states next year.

To Pat, I will another trip to New York City and a good performance at Foot Locker Championships.

KRISTI FAY

To Yehhie, I will the ability to get thrown out of class, and get more than a stern warning. Don't forget me or the great times we had. (You are F-I-I-I-N-E!) Best of luck, and I'll C-ya at J.C.U.! P.S. I wheel goes here, I wheel goes here!

To Kares, I will you all the nights of detention we had. Don't forget our little adventure in Bradford and Weezer's. Hey Pothead, it was fun. J.C.U., here we come! P.S. if you flush we will come!

To Nappie, I will you a role of duct tape and a new X-Mas tree, cause you know I rolled over it. Don't forget all the great parties we had you know where, and at Tim's. Take care and I'll miss ya!

To Jillo, I will you the ability to keep putting up with people's crap. Best of luck and don't forget me!

To Sarah, I will you all our talks in study hall. I hope everything works out for you with you and I know who and I'll definately C-YA! Don't forget me, and fly like an eagle.

And last but not least, to Ryan and Michael, I will you the ability to stand up for yourself. NEVER let anyone push you around, even me. Good luck in everything you do. Take care and I'll miss ya. I'm outta here!

SHANE FOX

I will Mr. Schaller somebody to bug him and sell like I did. I also will him loading the van and doing some of the things that I did.

I will Ms. Lindgren somebody with the ability to write a term paper as long or longer than mine. I will the cheerleaders lots of fun and the luck to find somebody else to help with the yelling.

I will the class of '95, 6th grade Camp Counselors and certain band and French club members to have lots of fun late, late at night.

HOLLY FULLER

I will all of my Love to Mike.

I will to Gooh the ability to pass the 7th grade. Good luck in the future.

To Terri Himes, thanks for being there for me. Love Ya!

To Bug, hey you can't forget all of our little chats about "sugar". Good luck in the future. Keep in touch.

To all the people at my lunch table (Robin, Bug, April, Misty, Bill and Ray), Hey, you've gotta love me.

I wish Jenny, Nicole, and Donna the best of luck in accounting next year.

I will Mr. Valenti the ability to make the students next year work harder than we did in second period.

To Mr. Tobias, I will cafeteria duty forever.

To Mrs. Cleveland, don't forget our little chats.

To Robin, I know you wouldn't forget me, who could. Don't forget any of our laughs third period. You know what I mean.

MELANIE GEISER

To Marie, I will a night for us to get picked up at McDonald's, and I will a pair of gloves and a big shovel, Good luck at Thiel. Love Ya.

To Laura, I also will a pair of gloves and a shovel in case you're ever in a situation in which you need help getting out. Remember all of our talks over the years. Good luck in all you do. Love Ya.

To Maryellen, I will you the memories of all our talks.

Thanks for all of your support and wise advise, even though I didn't listen sometimes. Good luck in all you do. Love Ya.

To Shannon A., I will the ability to remember a video tape and interviewing. See ya in college. Love Ya.

To Cory C., Brian H., Josh P., Sam H., and the rest of the weight room guys, I will miss you a lot. Good luck in all you do. Have fun the rest of the years in school.

To Jamie, I thank you for everything you've done for me and remember our little talks in the AV room.

To Amy, I hope you keep your determined attitude. Remember our "great" times in Economics.

To Cheryl, I will the memory of making fun of a certain person. La La La. Good luck in college.

TANYA GOOD

I will my little brother, Cody, and my little niece, Brittany, the ability to graduate, to stay out of trouble, and to have as much fun at SAHS as I did. Good Luck!

I will Kami Myers my locker. Remember all the fun times we had going to Vo-tech and everywhere else. Always slow down for those railroad tracks and listen for anything to fall off. Ha! Ha! Thanks for always being there.

I will Stephanie Jacobson the ability to graduate, and to stay out of trouble. Remember all the good times we had over the summer, even when I had to babysit you. Ha! Ha!

I will Angela Taggart my grades in Mr. Porter's class. Don't forget about the car wash, I know I won't. Thanks for everything.

FRANK GRAVES

To all students who will graduate from SAHS, do your best in everything you do and never give up. Work hard, pay attention and things will work out well.

To my former teachers, I thank you for what you have taught me, and I'm very grateful for having been one of your students.

To all history teachers, you were my favorites. I will always be in debt to all of you.

To my friends, there are so many of you, I salute you all. We will always be best of friends. Keep in touch.

AMY GREENE

To Tony, I leave the ability to put up with me forever.

To Charlie, I leave the ability to get the "attitude."

To Stephanie, I leave the ability to make it through school and bandfront.

To Casey, I leave the ability to find someone else to hug and to kiss you.

To Mar and Laura, I leave all the great memories and the ability to party hard.

To the greatest friend I could have ever asked for, Doug, I leave the ability to make it apart. We make a great team even when we're getting into trouble. I'll never forget you, P.C. Remember all the great times we've had from burning magazines to partying.

ROBIN HAMILTON

I will my little brother, Charlie, and my cousin Andrew the ability to make it through SAHS and to have fun, Love ya, guys.

I will my little sister, Essence, the ability to party hard and have a lot of fun doing it, and don't ever forget me. Love ya and miss ya a lot.

I will my cousin, Angeline, the ability to get away with everything. Oh and not to forget the red and white striped shorts. Make sure to stay out of trouble.

Gooh Bear (April Causer), Sherri and Terri Himes, Joe-Ann Compton, I will the ability to make a lot of teachers mad at you in the future years, or to suck up to the teachers. I'm going to miss you guys.

Justin and Josh Safford, I will the ability to party and not get caught, and to forget all about those darts. See you guys around.

Erica, I will the ability to have a lot of fun in Cyclone like we always do, trying to get in trouble but usually it didn't work.

Scooter, I will you the ability to find someone else

to run into from now on.

Joe Coleman and Patrick (Shawn) Linnan, I will to have fun at the dances.

Mr. Tobias, I will a years supply of green olives. I'm going to miss your class.

Mrs. Cavallaro, I will the ability to let everyone play what they want like we did in your class. I'll miss you a lot.

I will Carrie and Holly the ability to never ever forget me.

THEODORE HAYNES

To Erik Barkley, I will the strength to make it through the longest year of your life.
Not to mention my cheesy mustache. (Mine may be cheesy, but at least it's there.)

I will Brooke Sample my lucky turkey beard.

To Eric and Nick Frye, I will
a big pile of jack squad.
Five more years, Scrubbies!
(Ok, you can have my smelly jumping shoes.)

To Jessica Kinney, I leave the strength of my butt.

To Stephanie Bango and Shannon Murphy, I will my blocks and someone to hold them.

To the football team and all other athletics, I will the strength to take the pressure and rise to the occasion.
Good Luck Hubs. Woo-Hoo!

VICTORIA HILLIARD

Through all my years in school
I have had the pleasure of meeting new and interesting people. Here are some of the thing that I remember most...

Julie, Elks club on Saturdays, campouts in Hazel Hurst, your little sisters birth, and
"Never gonna get it"!!
Jaime, New Years Eve '94.
T.R., Orange juice without the Oranges.
Nicki, Woodstock '94, the volleyball net, and the basketball hoop.

Lars, Washington D.C.
Todd, Halloweens of the past, Hazel Hurst dances, and the last song that would never end.

Angela, trips to Darien Lake and Jennifer's, long talks, and all our many fits.

Stephanie, Washington D.C., your first Halloween and Thanksgiving, hummingbirds,
all of the trees, all the snow (you asked for it), learning to drive, Prom, Homecoming, Graduation, bowling, trips to Fashion Bug, Beauty and the Beast, and the experience of learning to live and fit with sisters.

Pattsi, Prom, dances, the orbitron, gym and science class, and the thought of not making it. (Thank you for all your help.)
Anthony, science class,
dances, and extra phone calls (keep in touch).
Drama people, all men and women are equal except when it comes to brute strength, also remember all our hard work to remember every line by heart (not quite).

Bandfront '96, Good luck with the routines, have fun on the trip, and remember if it's raining, don't move on the field.

Yearbook '96, Good luck on making your deadline.

To everyone else that I have met "Peace be with you in your journeys through life."

LISA ISADORE

I will my little brother, Jim, the ability to make it through high school and graduate. Have fun, Bud. Don't party too much.

To Randy, Todd, and Jodi, I hope you do well in your remaining years, and Randy try to be a little better with your parents. You have great parents ya know. Good luck with football.

To Mrs. Greene, thank you for being there for me. You would make a great counselor. I'll miss you.

To Jamie and Nicole (Nose Flare), I will the ability to have a better squad next year with just a little less fighting and pouting.

MICHELLE JACOBSON

I will Jamie K. and Amanda H. not to have too much fun next year without me 'cuz remember girls, I'm the transportation.

To my sister, I will better luck with vehicles than I, and also, to have as much fun through school as I did.

I will John K., Tim K, and Josh S. the strength to find themselves a new "taxi." Sorry Justin, but I really do have to leave early. Love you guys and good luck in everything.

To Tanya G., don't ever forget all the great times we've had in the black beast. Don't ever change. Good Luck.

To Stoop, I will the ability to stick up for herself. Don't forget all the things we did. You were a great friend and don't forget all the fights 'cuz believe it or not, I taught you a lesson. Love Ya.

To Nappie, Good Luck in the future and the strength to stay away from the stuff we did the second day of school. Love Ya.

To two good friends, Yehhie and Jill, Thanks girls for always being there when I needed you most. Yehhie, I will you the ability to listen to all my dumb stories, and I also want to go truckin' with you. Adela-Chela, don't forget our little road trip (Ohio), and all of the men problems. Love ya, girls, and good luck in the future.

To Kerrie, I will the ability to never stop calling me.

JESSICA JARRETT

To Kellie, I will the ability to succeed in everything you do and to put up with this place for a couple more years. Always remember that I love you.

To Aaron, I will the best of luck in all you do, and the money for gas so you don't have to walk.

To Kellie and Heather, I will you guys the energy to keep the tradition of the basement alive. Good Luck.

To Cory, Amber, and Justin, I will you all the ability to succeed in all you do and have fun doing it.

ANTHONY JOHNSON

To Tony Miles, I will a stratocaster, a marshall stack, and gas money because at the rate he's going, he'll never have these things for himself.

To Pat Baker, I will fake I.D., a lifetime supply of shopping carts to smash and a girl named Kim with a dog.

To Andy, Colin, and Ryan, I will a heater to sit by and a lifetime supply of profane jokes to tell.

To Shannon K., a big bag of balloons to pop and doors that open easier.

To Sam, some gear to prevent those nasty racquet ball injuries, a girl that's set for life, and a cage to keep your bird in.

To my favorite bunch of freaks, I leave you physical science class and a big, grassy field to roll around in.

To Tammy, I will somebody to make her smile.

To my sister, a crash helmet to stop any head injuries, anything left in my room that's worth owning, and the ability to get out of here as fast as possible.

Finally, to all the people that ever gave me trouble, I've got a big baseball bat with all your names on it.

JENNIFER KEESLER

To my sister, Miss, best of luck in your future years at SAHS. I hope I can be as big a fan for you as you've been for me. To my little brother, Matt, I wish you love, luck, and support as you begin what I left behind. Take good care of Mom. I'll miss you both. Love ya!!

To Angel, I give the memories, the power to succeed in all you do, the will to not let people get you down, and all the friendship I could ever give. Best of luck in your remaining years at SAHS. I'm gonna miss you lots!

To Jess, Heather, Shannon, and Missy, I will the ability to keep up our little track traditions. Never forget all of our great times. Good luck and have fun in your remaining years in school. They'll go by fast. I'll miss you guys. To Josh V. I will all the memories and the fact that I'm always right.

To Megan and Maggie, I will our "trig talks" and our good times. Best of luck to you both. Last but not least, Ira, I will all my love and the great times and memories we've had, and all the times to come. Thanks for always being there and supporting me. I love you!

TANYA KEIM

To Carrie S., one of my best friends in the entire world, thanks for all the advice and really being a great friend when I needed it.

Jamie Miller, Honey, thanks for the two years that we have become great friends. Don't forget all the fast excursion trips to Westline, and everything else that we have been through. Don't worry Honey, someone is Mr. Right. You've done so much for me. I'll never forget it. I'll miss not seeing you in the halls. Love Ya.

To Eric and Beth, my brother and sister, Have a great time in High School. And be good, it goes by too fast.

To Karen Burgess, one of my great friends, we've been through so much together. Never forget all the great times. I Love Ya, Honey.

SHANNON KELLEY

Tanya, I wish you and Corky all the luck with your relationship. Stay out of trouble and remember all the fun we had at Vo-Tech.

Kami, I wish you the ability to put up with school (and certain people) for one more year. I also will you the ability to drive.

Tammy S, I hope you and Dan are happy together and have fun with the baby. Stay out of trouble.

RAYMOND KING

To Jim Himes, I leave my ability to rule the teachers and to NOT get in trouble.

To Matt Davis, I leave the will power to do well in school and make choices for your future. I will you the ability to keep people on their toes and to keep partying.

To Sherri Himes, I leave all my love and honor, and the ability to keep my little sis "Josi" out of trouble. I will you the best of luck in school, and I give you all my control over the teachers and the will to carry on.

I will April Causer and Melissa Causer the ability to keep up the good work and not get into a LOT OF TROUBLE.

I leave the Smethport School with the FEAR that I might come back to visit.

KELLY LEHMAN

I will all my ability to become a senior to Amber McDowell.

I will my brother, Cory, my old gym socks.

I will my deoderant to Bob Mott.

JASON LENT

I will my brother, Joel, the ability in sports and school.

I will Chico a new ride home.

I will Kelly Trask the ability to find a nice car.

I will Lisa Carlson a new name.

I will Shannon Murphy the ability to drive a standard.

I will Heather Tomlin the ability to do well in school.

JILL MACK

To Karie, Krispi, Shelle, Yehhie, and Stoop, I will all of the great times in class and outside of school. Kares, watch our for trees and falling stars. Yehhie, have fun trucking, I mean----! Luv yins!

I will Melissa our "fun and flashing" trip to Erie, the ability to act drunk on the phone, and all of our talks. Thanks for being there.

I will the upcoming students of Espanol the ability to give Senor as much trouble as we did, and to make sure he listens.

Nappie, I saved the best for last. I will you the memories of Kenny Rogers, smooch-nose, and long-lost "twins" for boyfriends. I also will you the ability to drive my truck without getting pulled over or giving me whiplash. Most of all thanks for being such a great friend, Chief. And that's all I got to say about that! Love Ya!!

TAMMY MARSH

To my little fartwagon, Chris, I will you all the pool games that you can handle, Wrastlin' in the living room, 1-on-1 b-ball, fishing down back, and 4-wheeling. Good Luck in your activities and for everything you do. Take care of the animals, but (I'll be back!) Love ya. Don't forget, go for your goals and dreams.

To Tracy, Brandy, and Larry, I'll miss you guys; you're a big part of my joyous life. All the luck in all you do. Brandy, you better share yours because you don't need that much! Thanks for all the wonderful memories and laughs. Love y'all.

Brandy, keep Steph and Cathy working on the relay, you know that you're the "Champions." You three are my heroes!!

To Rox, 'Ola', and Jamie, surprise birthday parties, pictures on the school, (who, what, oh Alma Mater!), football field RUSHES, track SPRINTS, a big fence to hurdle. It was fun, can we do it again?! I'll forever be your DD (no Jamie-not Drunk Driver, Designated Driver!!) when you need to get home SAFELY! I'm always here and sober for y'all.

To 'T,' I will a husband in a couple of years, a map to Bradford from Olean (or Erie!), dancing in your kitchen, and a swing that won't break. Never forget all of our great times (especially the ones that can't be written down!) Thanks for being there for me. Good Luck in all you do in the future. I'll miss you!

THOMAS MARTIN

Shout out to Bozy. Good luck in all you do especially in basketball.

Shout out to the Bishman who always gets the cookies. Good luck in your future. Shout out to Barkley and the G-ride

'cause I'm the real mamajama!!

Shout out to Budge a.k.a. Richy Rich, the worst bounce volleyball that ever played the game. Good luck, Not that you'll need it. Shout out to Jim Bob Funk. Good luck next year and with the camera. Bishop! Shout out to Kelly and Heffer, my two beautiful Philly sisters.

Shout out to Heather. Always remember the friendship we created in '95, cause that will always keep us strong and never apart. Don't forget all the great times we had outta school. Thank you for show'n me the way. Don't forget who loves you the most. Most of all, don't forget me.

TRENT MATTESON

I will the football team the ability to keep the streak alive.

I will Erin the ability to have a great time these next two years of high school.

I will Eric Eley all the great times we had skiing at Holiday Valley.

I will the class of '95 the ability to succeed in the years to come.

NATALIE MIKETISH

To Jill Mack, I will you everything and anything you ever wanted. You are the greatest friend anyone could ask for. Never forget all the rides around Bradford, the long conversations, and especailly Humdog and Shaff. Thanks for always being there. Love Ya!

To Yehhie, Krispi, Karrie, Shelle, and Stoop. I will you all a case of Zima. I wish you girls the best of luck in everything you do. Never forget all the great times we shared. I'm really going to miss all of you, hopefully we can keep in touch. Wub ya, girls!

To Jamie Thomas, I will the ability to spike a volleyball like I can. I hope you have a great summer and an awesome senior year. Never forget all the great times during practices and games. Practice your left hand serves!

To Steve Dunkle, and Troy Safford, I will you guys the ability to stay out of trouble. Steve, never forget all the great times we had with Stoop. Troy, never forget all the partying. I'm going to miss both of you guys. Take Care!!

TONY MILES

To Amy I leave my unconditional love, and the ability to put up with me the rest of your life, because you are stuck with me!

To Charlie, I will the ability to have a great time through the rest of high school, and not to have salespeople on your butt as soon as you walk into Chess King.

ARLA MILLER

To my younger brother and sisters: Richie, Robin, and Amy, I believe in you and all you do. Make memories and keep them. Never let anyone stop your dreams. I wish you all the luck in your years left at SAHS. I love you guys.

I will Rox the summer before our senior year. "Pam," "The Sign," and all of our trips to Crosby. Never forget ATTACK OF THE BURGANDY SOCKS. Thanks for being my Teenie Tiny Twin. Smile when you remember our times.

To Herbie, I will all our memories. The swamp, the strip mines, and all the secrets and long talks we've shared. Thank you for being such a special friend.

To Gary, I will the ability to go on more "girls' nights out"-Love ya.

To Jamie Lyn, I will the ability to reach your dreams, and the memories we've shared. In my heart you are like a sister to me. I'm always here for you, good or bad. Love ya. Jeff's just a cover.

PAT MURPHY

I will Mrs. Miller a candy bar and my dentist bill.

I will Ryan Woodruff and Ryan Yingling the ability to keep the streak alive, even without me. Good Luck!

To my little sister, I will the ability to stay out of trouble and an attempt at states for track next year.

I will Jenny Lerch the ability to remember all the fun times we had together and never forget me. I love ya! I'll miss ya!

ROXANNE O'ROURKE

To my brother, Pork, I will the ability to go after whatever you want. Have a good one; it goes by fast. To the volleyball team, I will a winning season and the strength to put up with "the coach". Zach and Larry, I will you all the parties you can handle without any interruptions from the cops.

The Kid and Rich, I will you both two girls that will treat you right. You deserve only the best.

Stoop, Arla, and Lisa, I will you my friendship forever. Don't forget me when I'm gone and all those memories: Red is cool, Green rules. Thanks for being there for me - I love you guys.

Last but not least, to Garry, I will my love and friendship forever. I'll never forget you and what we had. Thanks for the great memories. I'll be here whenever you need someone to lean on. You're the best.

LISA OKERLUND

To Cheryl, Kelly, and Lisa, I leave a map and a trip to Olean without getting lost. Thanks for all the memories and always making me smile. I also leave you with all of my "mood swings," cuz I know you will miss them! Keep in touch! I Love Ya!

To Lisa Carlson, I will three trips to a certain university and a house full of good looking, muscular, football players. Good luck at Pitt! I Love Ya!

To Chrissy Trask, I leave two really hot guys in Clarion that can dance! Good luck in your remaining years at this disgraceful high school. Keep smiling!

To Ang, I leave all of our memories (good and bad). Thanks for helping me through the rough spots in my life and thanks for getting me away from a certain person. I Love Ya!

To Cheryl, I leave a senior year full of laughter and tears. I leave U.P.B and our discovery of a frat house and $85 to pay a speeding ticket. I also leave you two guys from Olean with extra additions. Remember to "keep your head up"! Good luck-remember "NO FEAR" Love Ya!

To Kelly, I leave a summer full of ice cream and a few "VIVARIN" to keep you awake during homecoming. I also leave you a very confusing trip to Erie. Thanks for everything. I Love Ya!

MEGAN PETRUZZI

To my brother, I will the ability to excel in all he does. Remember you only have a couple years left, so use them wisely! Good luck in wrestling and everything else you do! Don't forget all our talks. To Bonnie and Katie, I leave the ability to do well in school and everything else! I love all you guys and will miss you!

To Heather C., I leave all our great talks and our great times of which we need more. Thanks for always being there when I needed you! Let your remaining year be memorable and fun. It goes fast! To Mar, I will all our great times, trips, and especially parties. Thanks for the talks and help you've given me. I'll miss the both of you!

To Molly, Heather D. and Bre, good luck in golf and band. Don't forget all our bus and van rides filled with our great discussions. To Maggie and Jen K., I leave all our "trashy" discussions in trig that we'll never forget! To Danielle B., I will not forget all the great times we've had especially in band. Thanks for always listening.

To Kevin K., I will the ability to kick butt in golf and to find a way home cause I'm not going that way! And last of all, I leave Shannon all our great times and memories we've had together. I LOVE YOU!!

JARED SMITH

To Heather, I leave all my heart, all my love, everything I am and everything I will be. Never forget me cause I sure ain't gonna forget you.

To my younger brothers, I leave the Surburban to be the common mode of transportation. May you find it to be as big a boat as I did.

To Weed, Caldwell, and Andre, I leave a pack of gum and a million dollars...on...Wait! You're graduating too. Whoops! There goes the million dollars, but you can collect on the gum anytime.

To "T. S." have a great life. Ha Ha. Yeah Right.

CARRIE SWARTZFAGER

I will Mike and Andy Porter the best of luck in the years to come at SAHS. I love ya.

I will Matt Davis the best of luck in his last year at SAHS.

April Brown the next time that you are at the wrong place at the wrong time you better run a little faster.

I will Nicole Eppley, Jenny Lerch, Donna Housler, the best of luck next year. I love ya.

DENNIS SWATSLER

I will a brain to Tanya Mosher.

I will Ken Limerick the ability to use a wrench.

To Mr. Yoder, it's been fun in your classes. See you later. Don't work too hard.

BENJAMIN TRASK

To Brian Boby, I will the ability to make people laugh so hard food flies out their nose during lunch.

To Pat King, I will the ability to bend a few arrows during archery season, and all my library fines.

To Robyn Miller, I will a bag of Skittles for every home football game.

To Kristin Miller, I will the ability to "schmooze" over any teacher.

To my little sister, Sara, I will the ability to keep your grades up when you get to high school.

KELLY TRASK

To my sister, Chrissy, I will the ability to stay out of trouble (like I did), don't let people push you around, strive for the best, and have some great times at SAHS. I'm gonna miss you. Love Ya!!

To Lisa Lynne, Cheryl, and Lisa, I leave all our great memories, especially getting lost on our way home from Olean. Thanks for always being there when I needed someone to talk to. Be sure to keep in touch, cuz I'll miss you. Love Ya!!

To Heather Sees, I leave all the long lines at Bob & Mary's over the summer. Never forget all the bruises we got on our arms. Good luck in cheering and stay out of trouble. I'll miss your smiling face and optimistic attitude!!

To Heather Freer, I will the ability to stay sweet, try to stay out of trouble, and last of all keep your brother in line for me. Take Care!

JOSHUA VANGORDER

To Heather T., I will good luck in the rest of your time at SAHS, and in all you do. I leave you my ability to stay out of trouble. Work hard in life. Always remember. I love you.

To Mrs. Miller, I leave two "toruses" and a never ending cup of coffee. To Maggie, I leave the ability to find someone else to tag around besides Jen and I. I also leave you a car.

To next year's football team,

I leave the ability to keep the streak alive. Stay focused and set you goals high. Play with the pride, poise, and intensity of champions. Good Luck!!

To Ryan Y., I leave the ability to remember who to block and not to have to ask me all the time. To Big Jer, I leave the ability to remember what the count is. To Whiz, I leave six inches.

To Jen K., I leave the ability to trip someone right. Thanks for all the good times we had together, and, yes, you were right most of the time.

RYAN WALKER

I will Doug and Matt D. the ability to graduate and have fun doing it.

I will all the Vo-Tech auto mechanic students the ability to put up with Mr. Rutzel.

I will Fitzy some good reading material for lunch duty.

I will Rich and Randy the ability to be good auto mechanics and to graduate with their PA inspection license.

I will Tor the ability to get his car on the road and the ability to grow a beard like mine.

MICHAEL WEIMER

I will Erik B. a bike for the one that got backed over.

I will all those "Red Squirrel" hunters out there some good hunting.

I will Señor LaBella a life time membership to the "Hair Club for Men".

MARGARET WELLS

I will my little brother, Billy, the best of luck with his last eight years of school. I love you, and I will miss you.

I will Kellie and Heather the ability not to get into trouble, and to have fun during the rest of your years in high school.

To Jessica, I will luck at IUP. I hope you have lots of fun. Don't forget all of our great talks about the jerks you dated, especially the short scrawny one.

Last of all, I will the golf team luck in all of their future matches.

JENNIFER WITHERELL

I will Holly Fuller the ability to stay out of trouble and marry Mike. Always remember "Scratch-n-Sniff."

To my brother, William E.J. Witherell, I will the ability to stay out of trouble and the ability not to give the office ladies and Mr. Kartesz a bad time.

I will Misty Causer the ability to stay out of trouble and marry Bill and have lots of children. Always remember "Day Women."

To all the office ladies, I will the ability to put up with the kids who come into the office. Thanks for everything.

To Mrs. Schneller, I will the ability to be "afraid" and to put up with the young ones.

To all the seniors of '95, I will the ability to succeed in everything you do. "Keep Ah Rockin".

To Mr. Tobias, I will the ability to have cafeteria duty forever.

MICHAEL WOLF

I will to Shannon McCool the best of luck in the future, my patience, and all my love.

I will Mr. Tobias, all of my snuff cans full and empty.

I will George Peters all the fun times we had at Districts, "Phil's" money he owes me, and good luck in wrestling.

I will Nick Lakatash, all the luck in the future and my skill of wrestling.

SHANNON YEAGER

I will the football team the ability to continue the streak and to beat Coudy.

I will my little brother the ability to do well in school and good luck in whatever he chooses to do.

To Maggie, I will the ability to find someone new to pick on you. Thanks for always being there for me when I needed someone to talk to and for always being such a great friend.

GO GANNON!

Most of all I will Meagan all the great times we spent together and thank her for always being there for me through the good and bad times and for always being my "bestest" friend. I LOVE YA, Meg.

SARAH MCKEIRNAN

To my cousin Michael, I leave a pair of jumper cables for your new car, and the knowledge to know how to use them. I also leave you a dutch apple cake and a Mountain Dew. Don't forget about our trip to Hawaii. I also leave you a night walk without getting in trouble.

To Chad M., I leave you all the great times we had. Too bad it's not like that now; still, you will always be a good friend.

To Lisa, I leave you all the memories of our wild times and the Red Box. I wish you all the luck for married life. I'm sure you'll be happy.

To Christi (Midow Woman), I leave you a glass of orange juice, the ability to tell when people are dead or alive, the smell of Dave, of course, I have to leave 3 layers of clothes and a dozen roses that look like a buger. You have been a good friend. I wish you luck with everything you do. I hope your future is everything you want it to be. You deserve the best!

ANDY RIFLE

I will Mr. Tobias the ability to follow a good football and baseball team, like the Colts and the Braves, rather than the Vikings and the Pirates. And the Braves shirt he had to wear "You Remember."

To my Locs, Matt and Aaron, have fun during the next two years in double sessions, from the Master Loc.

I will Blue Jeans, Cheryl, Little Brown Sister, and Lisa Lynn O' all the fun we had this year and remember "Lighter Shade of Brown."

I will Bobby Mott, somebody, next year, to kick your butt like I did.

I will the football team all the pride in the world and the ability to keep the streak alive. Never be satisfied!

KERRIE TEATS

To Kirsti, I will the ability not to hit anymore snowbanks. Never forget all the great times we had up at Weezer's, and let's not forget Nappie's tree. You've been a great friend. I wub ya, and I'll miss ya.

To Yehhie, I will you the ability not to hit anymore guardrails, at least not without me. Never forget the night you showed up at my dad's house, Girlfriend. I wub ya, and I'll miss ya.

To Nappie, I will you a new Christmas tree. Never forget all the great times we had when we played Jeopardy with Bid Bad Rhoda. I wub ya and I'll miss ya. Keep in touch.

To Jillo, I will you the ability to find a good parking place with peter marker. To Shelle, I will you the ability not to lock your keys in your car. I wub ya, and I'll miss ya both.

LESLIE NESTLERODE

To Karie, I will the ability for new and improved stick people positions, papertowels, bowling without getting caught, staying out of car accidents (those deer!), not having your mom know you have the "Whickey Whisper," and to have all of the ice cream sandwiches you can throw in a ceiling fan! See ya at J.C.U.!!

To Krispi, I will the ability to drive without hitting snowbanks, poles in Mrs. Y's, ditches, etc. Don't ever forget all of our trips to the principal's office, all the times we picked on Karie, shaving cream and raw eggs at Weezer's, and especially Mansfield!! See ya at J.C.U., Kares.

To Jillo, I will the ability not to have to go to the police station at 5 in the morning and sit in the garage, and I will the ability to find a real man TOO!!! See ya!

To Shelle, I will all the balls in McDonalds' playground, all the ashtrays in Burger King, and for your car, not to break down while we're feeding stray dogs. Don't ever forget all our good times and little "talks" at Weezer's! (I still have the hanger, too!!) Miss-ya!

To Nappie, I will the ability to stay away from parties at Shelle's house!! Don't ever forget all the good times we've had. I'll miss ya!!

SHANNON ALEXIS (appendage)

To Curt Wallace, Brent Johnson, Matt Olson, Eric Barkley, and Jonah Raymond, I leave bags of cherry bites licorice for track meets. To Zach Bush, I leave a miracle maid. And last but not least, I leave Teddy lots of hugs. Thanks for always being there when I needed a shoulder. I'll miss ya. Luv Ya Always!!

MICHELLE JACOBSON (appendage)

To Christi, I will the strength to put up with me this summer especially after the baby is born. Thanks for always being there for me. You're the best. Remember all the great times. Love ya lots, Shelle.